torial goes on to explain that suffrage in Ginter Park does not yet extend to national matters like the tariff and savings banks like governorships and road laws. For the present the voting privilege is restricted to such immediate questions as electric lighting and the wise and economical disposition of ashes. It concludes: "who can say where it may lead to some day?"

Club Sandwiches.

During the recent State Fair in Richmond I got some sandwiches called club sandwiches. Can you give the recipe for the filling? C. B. Enfield, Va.

I send you the following, authorized by "Marion Harland," a known authority on such subjects. She says: "Take evenly and thinly cut slices of bread, toast a nice brown. Put between them, after they are buttered, a lettuce leaf spread with mayonnaise, slices of cold roast chicken, a few chopped olives and pickles, one or two pieces of ham, if possible, more dressing, mayonnaise, or salad dressing, another lettuce leaf and another slice of toast."

The Bride's Bouquet.

Is it the invariable custom for a bride to carry a bouquet? F. C. T. When a bride is married in traveling costume, she does not carry a bouquet unless she wishes to do so. A breast-knot of flowers and a prayer book with flower markers is the accepted form.

Acknowledgment of Gifts.

What is the most cordial way for a bride to acknowledge wedding gifts from relatives and friends of the bridegroom whom she has never met? E. D. S.

The proper acknowledgment is a note written in the first person and sent by the bridegroom, mentioning the senders of gifts. This applies to persons unknown as well as intimate acquaintances.

For Early Risers.

What would you suggest by way of amusement for children who wake very early in the morning? D. L. H. Provide for them some special toys which they have at no other time. A little girl who rouses every morning between 5 and half-past and used to allow other members of the household no peace, now occupies herself happily with a certain doll and a set of dishes.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

BY VIRGINIA WESTOVER

Correspondents are requested to send communications on subjects in which they are interested, forwarding which they desire information to the Editor of the Woman's Page.

An article appeared in a Boston paper stating that suffrage has been formally granted the women of Ginter Park. Also that "this Richmond suburb is the first community in the South to take this step."

Will you kindly give me information concerning this, how long it has been in effect, as I have seen nothing of this in local papers. Thanking you in advance.

Richmond, Va.
I supposed the Boston article referred to by you was based on an editorial appearing in The Times-Dispatch on October 23. This editorial mentioned Ginter Park as an organized township, and stated that at a recent town meeting a resolution had been passed according the voting privileges "to all males and females, white and over twenty-one years, owning property and living in Ginter Park." The edi-until it is time for her elders to rise.

To Apply Petroleum.

What is the best way to apply petroleum to the scalp? E. L. F. Get some one to rub it thoroughly into the scalp, otherwise it will smear the hair and collect the flying dust. The oil should be applied twenty-four hours before the shampoo. Then it should be washed out well.

When Three Are Together.

When two girls are walking with a man, or when two men are escorting a girl, what is the correct order of walking? B. K. In the first instance the man should walk nearest the chaperone, and the two girls on the inside. When a girl is with two men, she should walk between the two.

Calling Etiquette.

When a woman is calling and a visitor rises to leave soon after the entrance of a parlor, should the woman remain seated or rise with her hostess? B. S. C. Should the hostess be a woman much older than her caller, the latter should pay her the courtesy of rising. Usually it is proper for her to remain seated and acknowledge the leave-taking of a fellow visitor by a smile and bow.

Elbows on Table.

Is it permitted a young girl to rest her elbows on a table during a meal? M. J. It is a decided breach of good manners and so ungraceful as a habit that it should never be practiced.

Doctor's Title.

Is it proper to use a doctor's title in sending out his wedding cards? H. W. It is done in America, but it is a custom not popular in England.

The Man or the Girl.

In making a man and a girl acquainted should the man be presented to the girl or vice versa? S. S. The man should be presented to the girl. Of course, in a case where a young girl is asked to meet a great celebrity or a much older man, she should be introduced to him.

OPPOSE WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Cardinal Gibbons and Senator Root Express Opinions.

NEW YORK, November 2.—In a letter to the National League for the Civic Education of Women, an anti-suffrage organization, made public to-day, Cardinal Gibbons says: "I regret greatly that I cannot attend the meeting called for November 16. Although my many duties will not allow me to be present at your meeting, I beg to assure you that I am most heartily in sympathy with the aim of your league, and I approve most strongly the stand it has taken in opposing woman suffrage, which, in reality, would be the deathblow of domestic life and happiness."
